ORDER:

The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette:

NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 241 (2) (b) of the Government of India Act, 1935, and of all other powers hereunto enabling, His Excellency the Governor of Madras hereby makes the following amendment to the special rules for the Madras Judicial Ministerial Service (section 28 of Part III-B of the Service Rules in Volume III of the Madras Services Manual, 1946).

AMENDMENT.

After rule 25-A of the said special rules, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:-

"25.B. Probationers desiring courses of study not connected with probation (a) A probationer who desires to undergo any course of study which though not essentially connected with his probation is likely to enhance his usefulness as a member of the service, shall on his application be permitted by the appointing authority to undergo the desired course of study. He shall also be granted the entire amount of leave, if any, admissible under the rules applicable to him, if but for such leave he would have continued to be on duty.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 30 such probationer shall, on the completion of the course of study, be entitled to re-appointm according to the rank and seniority held by him in his class or category before undergoing the said course of study. He shall also be entitlted to count his continuous service immediately before his undergoing the said course of study for increment in the time-scale of pay applicable to him, if but for his absence from the service (whether on leave or otherwise) for undergoing the said course of study, he would have continued to be on duty.

(c) This rule shall not have the effect of excluding the period of absence in computing the continuous period within which the period of probation has to be served under rule 22.
